About this flag

I'd like to propose an alternative to the current non-partnering flag (<https://lgbtqia.wiki/wiki/Non-partnering>) as a symbol for non-partnering as a relational orientation. I see non-partnering not as a choice, but as the predominant or complete lack of desire to form or live in partnerships. This could be seen as part of a broader spectrum of relational orientations, such as mono-partnering, poly-partnering, queerplatonic-partnering, etc.

The suggested flag consists of two horizontal color bars with a white tilde (~) in the center. The tilde symbol is used here to represent non-partnering, as its shape resembles an unwound ring. Orange symbolizes community and non-partnering connection. Turquoise represents autonomy, becoming, and self-expression.
